UP TO LAST WEDNESDAY.

S. Emery, Maumee City, O., $1.20 for Organ. In his letter, Bro. E. informs us that, "The people are moving in our legislative district—the signs of the times indicate that neither of the political parties will nominate a Maine Law man. The Maine Law men, consequently, issued a call for a Convention to come off on the 14th of this month, soon after the others. The call is signed by one hundred names, embracing some of our most influential citizens. It does our hearts good to see the rummies squirm. Even the most inveterate opposers of the law, say that it will go in spite of them."

A. A. Stewart, State Agent, per G. F. Stewart, Norwalk, O., 211 copies Campaign Organ. All for Huron county.

S. Chambers, Eaton, O., $1 for Organ.

A. A. Stewart, State Agent, per James Brown, Hillsboro', O., 300 copies Campaign Organ. All for Highland county.

John W. Larkin, Neville, O., $1.20 for Campaign Organ. This is a very important field, and the brother informs us that they are lacking in speakers. As the State Executive Committee have taken this matter in hand, we hope proper and immediate attention will be paid to this request. There are plenty of speakers in the field, if their appointments are judiciously made.

T. G. Fisher, Prairie Depot, Wood county, O., $1 for Campaign Organ.

J. M. Campbell, P. M., Fort Recovery, O., $1 for Organ. The P. M. informs us that the temperance question is beginning to excite considerable interest, and that they expect to do something this fall. The anties are getting pretty uneasy.

W. C. McGill, Mount Washington, O., 30 cents for Campaign Organ.

Z. Swords, Wakeman, Huron county, O., $1.05 for Campaign Organ.

C. Reeder, Morris, Grundy county, Ill., $2 for Organ, for Dew Drop Division, No. 122. The brother says in his letter: "Our object of sending for your paper is, to let the friends of temperance in this region, have an opportunity of seeing it in order to get up subscriptions for it through this county; for, by the grace of God, we intend to push the battle to the very gates of King Alcohol, through the next State election, which will come off in 1854. I intend to stump this county, with some others, and I feel like getting the Organ scattered through the county, as well as through the State. I hope that victory may perch upon your banner in your coming contest."

Eli Covert, Hiramsburgh, O., $1 for Campaign Organ. The brother adds: "We had a meeting in our town on the 27th ult., on the great subject of temperance. The meeting was addressed by the Rev. Mr. Shafer, and he did the subject justice. After he had shown the great evil of intemperance, he recommended the Maine Law, and called for the vote of the house. Very nearly a unanimous vote was the result. We will not vote for any man who will not pledge himself to go for the Maine Law."

R. J. J. Harkins, Duncan's Falls, O., $3 for Campaign Organ.

L. B. McNabb, Poland, O., $3 for tracts. The brother informs us that, "The temperance feeling is beginning to revive in this part of the State, though we do not expect to elect a Maine Law man. The Whigs and Freesellers will, in all probability, unite and take up a Maine Law man. The other party will, we think, take up a rummy—the rum party being very strong."

R. C. Logan, Batavia, O., 25 Campaign Organs.

L. J. Dallas, Sewellsville, O., $2 for tracts.

W. H. Griffith, P. M., Marshall, O., $2 for Campaign Organ.

H. T. Sutton, Boweraville, O., 40 cents for Campaign Organ.

R. C. Hall, Westfield, Morrow county, O., 1 for Organ, in his letter Brother Hall says: "We are trying to do something for the cause of temperance here in Morrow county. Our foes are numerous, and are determined to defeat the Maine Law movement if it is in their power. But I am glad that the temperance men of the different parties are willing to throw down party lines and come up to the rescue on the Maine Law platform, and stick to it till victory shall perch upon our banners. If we are not divided by intriguing Fogies, who are trying to get two or three temperance candidates in the field, success is sure. But we must not be deceived by party influences."

A. A. Stewart, State Agent, 400 copies Campaign Organ, for Warren county.

The following communication has been handed us for publication. It is from the pen of a veteran in the cause—a tried and true friend, and one whose advice and admonition has often been heard in the councils of the friends of Temperance. We hope every temperance man in the county, and especially Delegates to the coming County Nominating Convention, will give it a careful and attentive perusal. Let the friends of the cause unite for the sake of the cause, laying aside all party predilections, and select sound and reliable men—those on whom community can depend for our candidates. But read the communication and profit by the wisdom and counsel it contains.

For the Organ.

Our Maine Law Candidates.

A most important duty devolves on our Temperance Convention for the selection of candidates for the Legislature, for the coming election; for on this selection depends the success of our ticket in Hamilton county; and the same assertion may apply to every county in the State.

I hope our Convention will be composed of men that have nerve and independence enough, promptly to resist and rebuke every kind of sinister and outside pressure for personal interest; that will never submit to have our ticket made a stepping-stone to office for any man; nor will put the name of any person on the ticket that has nothing to recommend him, but a pledge at the eleventh hour—perhaps the pledge of a demagogue—that cannot be relied on from hour to hour.

No man must be placed on our ticket that has not a solid and consistent character in our temperance ranks; nor men either that have strong political and party hobbies, that renders them unpopular with our community.

It is not worth while to disguise the fact, that at the coming election we have to make a powerful struggle for victory; and we shall most certainly jeopardise our success if we place on our ticket the name of an unpopular or improper man.

In the language of the race-course, (where I have not been for forty years,) we cannot afford to put in the saddles of our riders one ounce of additional weight over what is required by the rules of the race, or we shall be distanced. A CITIZEN.

Hon. C. N. Olds lately addressed the citizens of Chillicothe on the subject of temperance. The Advertiser, of that place, makes the following comments:

"The speech in the main was a good temperance speech, though he made one assertion devoid of truth. It was, that the opponents of the Maine Law comprise two classes of individuals—those who are controlled by interest, and those who are governed by appetite. We know men who are opposed to this law, who are as good temperance men as Mr. Olds or any other man living, and who are influenced in no degree by either interest or appetite. Such groundless assertions are in no-wise calculated to do any cause good, and we were surprised to hear a man of Mr. Olds's credited ability and intelligence indulge such language."

Mr. Olds has uttered our sentiments exactly. It cannot be otherwise, since all mankind admit that the traffic is a great moral and political evil. No one certainly would advocate its continuance who is not governed by interest or appetite—the ruling passions of man. Barnum will pay a premium for an anti-Maine-Law-man, who ever assisted the friends of the temperance cause, in any way. They stand side by side with the vilest whisky-sellers in the land, and from the very nature of their position, they can not have any sympathy for the cause.

Primary Meetings.

Our friends in the Eastern Precinct of Sycamore township, have selected Joel Malsbury and A. J. Baltzell as delegates to the County Convention. After the appointment of delegates, the following resolutions were reported and adopted:

Resolved, That as temperance men of this Precinct, we do not intend to make an independent ticket, to be voted for at the coming October election.

2. That as temperance Democrats, we will use our efforts at the coming popular vote of September 12th, to nominate a good temperance, Democratic ticket for the suffrages of the voters of this County.

3. That we hold the Democratic party responsible for the presentation of a suitable and proper ticket, to the voters of this County, for their suffrages this fall.

4. That in case such a ticket is not made by them; then, so far as it shall be improper, our delegates are hereby instructed to use their endeavors, at the contemplated convention to make it acceptable to us as temperance men.

5. That we will not sustain, at the coming October election, any man, as a candidate for the office of Senator, or Representative, who is not in favor of a stringent, and an efficient prohibitory liquor law, nor will we support any man, for a County office, who is not sober and correct in his habits.

Extract of a letter received from the great apostle of temperance, Father Mathew, dated August 7.

"Should it please the Almighty to permit me to labor as formerly, for the promotion of temperance, I will be happy indeed to do so. I am happy to hear the cause is flourishing in Cincinnati."

Samuel H. Studman, of Lucas county, has received the nomination of the Democrats from the District composed of the counties of Lucas, Henry, Fulton, Putnam, Wood and Hancock.

The following description of some of the new designs got up this season for Store Bills, is given for the information of Country Merchants:

THE CRYSTAL PALACE,

Being a large and correct representation of the immense glass building in which the World's Fair is now being held. Besides the curiosity it will excite, it makes an admirable appearance on a poster. Now here is a chance to show the World's Fair to such of your customers as cannot afford time and money to visit it.

THE LOCOMOTIVE.

Another good picture, illustrating the progress of the age, where railroads do not exist, or where there is one about opening—a better picture could not be obtained for a poster. The cars are attached to the locomotive and filled with goods, they are booming gracefully along.

THE RUSH.

This is a view of a store, which has just received a new lot of goods. The rush of customers is tremendous, and somewhat laughable.

THE TRAIN OF CARS.

This is an elegant representation of a freight train descending a grade, and entering a village. Piles of goods can be seen on each car, all properly marked, of course, for the store. The people are out en masse and waiting its arrival.

THE FACES.

Two very expressive countenances, one indicating joy, the other sorrow. That is, one has got a bargain—the other aint. They are of a large size.

In addition to the above the Proprietors have recently made large additions to their stock of

ENGRAVINGS, WOOD CUTS, BORDERES, Which, together with their facilities for doing
